

HOPE AND HOLINESS: PASTORAL CARE FOR THOSE WITH SAME-SEX ATTRACTION

MARCH 1, 2, 3, 2016

At all levels of leadership and ministry, the Catholic Church is called to a deeper understanding of the challenges faced by those who experience same-sex attraction, in order to respond compassionately, truthfully, and charitably through all facets of pastoral care. Three study days will be presented in collaboration with the Courage Apostolate.

Fr. Paul N. Check

Timothy G. Lock, Ph.D.

Daniel Mattson

Each Study Day includes a live presentation by Fr. Paul N. Check, Executive Director of Courage International; a video presentation by Catholic psychologist Timothy G Lock, Ph. D.; and personal testimony by Courage member Daniel Mattson, who is featured in the documentary film "Desire of the Everlasting Hills."

Seminarian & Clergy Track:

For seminarians, deacons, and priests

Tuesday, March 1, 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. (with box lunch), Kenrick-Glennon Seminary

Cost Sponsored by Office of the Permanent Diaconate and Office of Continuing Education for Priests

Parish Leaders and Archdiocesan Curia Track:

For those working in adult faith formation, RCIA, Evangelization, pastoral ministry

Wednesday, March 2, 6:30 - 9:30p.m., Fleur de Lis Room, Cardinal Rigali Center

Cost: $10

Catholic Education & Youth Ministry Track:

For those working with youth from 6th to 12th grade

Thursday, March 3, 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. (with box lunch),

Fleur de Lis Room, Cardinal Rigali Center

Cost: $20 (includes lunch)

Registration is required.

To register, please contact Deacon Jim Russell at 314-792-7173 or jimrussell@archstl.org.